2.1. Deliveries are only to be made on the basis of the order of the Buyer. Orders of the Buyer are only binding if they are placed by the Buyer in writing or electronically or if they have been confirmed by the Buyer in writing or electronically after the order has been placed orally or by telephone, quoting the order number. The same applies to oral ancillary arrangements or subsequent changes of the order. Acceptance of the order by the Supplier has to be made on the form provided for this purpose on the order, unless otherwise agreed.

The Supplier shall reimburse the Buyer two-thirds of the invoice value for separately invoiced packaging upon return provided it is in good condition.

5. Delivery Date, Contractual Penalty, Substitute Performance

5.1. Delivery dates and deadlines are binding. Receipt of the defect-free and complete delivery, rendering of the defect-free and complete services or, if agreed, the acceptance of the delivery or service by the Buyer at the stated destination is decisive for their observance.

5.3. The Supplier must notify the Buyer in writing immediately of any foreseeable exceedance in the delivery dates and deadlines, stating reasons and the probable duration of the delay.

5.4. In the event of exceeding the delivery dates and deadlines, the Buyer is entitled to payment of a contractual penalty. The Buyer can reserve the right to assert the contractual penalty until the final payment is made.

5.5. After fruitless expiry of an appropriate period of grace (grace period) set by the Buyer, the Buyer is in addition entitled to have the delivery rendered by a third party at the expense of the Supplier. In this case the Supplier is obliged to surrender the documents required immediately to the Buyer. If intellectual property rights hinder the delivery by third parties, the Supplier is obliged to procure corresponding exemption from these rights immediately.

5.6. Otherwise, the rights of the Buyer are determined according to the statutory provisions in the event of exceeding the delivery dates and deadlines.

The acceptance of a delay in delivery by the Buyer does not constitute any waiver of claims for compensation.

6. Delivery Interruption and Rescission

6.1. If circumstances for which the Buyer is not responsible lead to a closure or impairment of the operations of the Buyer or of a Buyer's customer for whom the delivery is intended, the Buyer duty to take delivery lapses for the duration of the closure or impairment of operations. In this respect, claims to damages on the part of the Supplier against the Buyer are excluded.

6.2. The Buyer is entitled to rescind the agreement either in whole or in part if the delivery can no longer be utilized from an economic viewpoint due to circumstances for which the Buyer is not responsible.

6.3. The Buyer is entitled to rescind the agreement either in whole or in part if there is cause. The price components must be shown separately by the Supplier.

8.2. Payment for visits, samples, patterns or the preparation of offers, projects, etc. is not granted by the Buyer.

9. Terms of Payment

9.1. Payment is effected using the payment instruments at the Buyer's discretion.

9.2. The payment period begins upon receipt of a proper invoice in duplicate after completely rendered delivery or if agreed after acceptance of the delivery or service by the Buyer. Early delivery or partial delivery does not affect the payment period.

9.3. A proper invoice must meet the statutory requirements and guidelines of the order. The latter include at least statement of the order number and other relevant details. Incorrect invoices are only regarded as received by the Buyer from the time of correction. Invoices must be issued in EUR unless otherwise agreed. 9.6. The Buyer is entitled to rights of offsetting and retention to the statutory extent.

9.7. If payments must be made by the Buyer before delivery (down payments), the Supplier must provide corresponding bank guarantees issued by a German bank in favor of the Buyer before the Buyer effects payment.

9.8. Payments do not indicate acceptance of the delivery as being in accordance with the contract. Payments are made subject to subsequent claims.

10. Assignment, Pledging, Retention of Title

10.1. The Supplier is not entitled without the approval of the Buyer to assign its claims vis-à-vis the Buyer or to have them collected by third parties. If the Supplier nevertheless assigns its claims to third parties or has them collected by third parties, the Buyer can at its discretion pay both to the Supplier as well as to the third parties with discharging effect.

With regard to the extended retention of title of pre-suppliers of the Supplier, the agreement of the Buyer to advance assignment is hereby considered to be given.

If this reveals that significant parts of the samples do not meet the contractual or legal requirements, the Buyer shall be released from additional inspection and is entitled to reject the entire delivery. The rejection of the delivery does not constitute any declaration of rescission of the agreement.

11.5. In the event of defects occurring within the guarantee period, the Buyer is entitled to assert the legal guarantee claims at its discretion and in addition to demand reimbursement of expenses and damages from the Supplier.

The guarantee claims are statute limited after the expiry of 12 months beginning with the notification of defects.

11.6. The Supplier bears all expenses arising in connection with the identification and rectification of the defect, especially examination costs, costs for dismantling and installation, shipment, transport, work, material and travel costs. This also applies if the expenses increase as a result of the delivery item being taken to a location other than the stated destination.

11.7. If setting a grace period is not essential, the Buyer also has this right without setting a grace period.

11.8. Measures to correct minor defects or to avoid disproportionately great damage or to avoid threats to operational safety at the Buyer or third parties may be carried out at the expense of the Supplier by the Buyer or by third parties contracted by the Buyer without prior consultation. The Buyer informs the Supplier immediately of the reason, nature and scope of these measures. This does not affect the guarantee obligation of the Supplier.

11.9. The guarantee period is extended by the duration of the interruption of use for deliveries or parts thereof which cannot be used by the Buyer for the duration of the defect and / or the defect rectification. For repaired or replacement deliveries or parts thereof, the guarantee period restarts at the time of the successful rectification of the defect.

12. Third-Party Rights
